DESCRIPTION

This extraordinary estate, available through private negotiation, is the perfect choice for those seeking a residence that combines generous living space, total privacy, and an unparalleled panoramic setting. Nestled in the heart of Costa Smeralda, it offers breathtaking views of the Archipelago and Corsica. Its west-facing orientation has been thoughtfully designed to capture the warm glow of the Sardinian sunsets, making every day a unique experience. The property is set within a private estate of approximately 3 hectares, surrounded by lush Mediterranean vegetation. The villa, designed by a renowned architect, is arranged over multiple levels that follow the natural contours of the land. It includes four bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom, spacious living areas, and expansive windows that flood the interiors with natural light while offering stunning sea and garden views. The panoramic terraces lead to an elegant solarium with a swimming pool, perfect for relaxing in total seclusion. This is a truly rare opportunity for those seeking an iconic and one-of-a-kind residence, surrounded by beauty and immersed in the tranquility of one of the most exclusive natural settings in Costa Smeralda.
